

Membership and Membership Fees

- Ordinary Members
- Corresponding Members
- Experts/Personal Members

It's worth being a member! The ISSA Chemistry Section offers three membership categories:

Ordinary Members:

Non-profit organisations and members of the International Social Security Association in Geneva who are involved in or wish to support the Section's activities.

Annual subscription: 500 CHF

Corresponding Members:

For-profit companies and organisations that identify with and wish to help achieve the objectives of international occupational safety.

Annual subscription: 500 CHF

Experts/Personal Members:

Individual experts who wish to provide the ISSA with assistance in their specialist field.

Annual subscription: 100 CHF

Ordinary, corresponding and personal members have access to all information and all have the same opportunities to be involved in our activities.

The subscription fee can sometimes be waived. Please get in touch with us if you feel this is justified in your particular case.
